

Meets Borscht

By Aashi Morales

The coming of spring each year means that it is time for the popular “Bollywood Meets Borscht Belt,” the fun, family-friendly, multicultural event that raises funds for school supplies for homeless and economically disadvantaged children in the Austin area. Hindu tinued On Page 11)

7th Annual Bollywood Meets Borscht Belt Returns For 2019

Charities for America (HC4A), with the support of Shalom Austin and the Jewish community, is putting on this important local event for the seventh year in a row. (Come join us on Sunday, April 7, 2019, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center on the Dell Jewish Community Campus, 7300 Hart Lane, Austin, Texas, for an evening of music, food, dance, and networking.

This year's theme is "Dances of India" and will feature performances of regional dances from around India, showcasing the rich potpourri of Indian culture. Enjoy a vegetarian/dairy Indian dinner graciously donated by Indian restaurants across Austin, chai and Jewish desserts donated by the Jewish community, and the sights and sounds of the different regional dances of India, all while helping homeless and disadvantaged students in the Austin area.

100% of the proceeds will go to school supplies for children in need in Austin.

Last year we provided school supplies to over 1000 students from local school districts—about 20% of the local homeless student population. This year we hope to raise funds to be able to help even more! HC4A was founded in 2010 on the principle of Serve Where You Live™ and provides a vehicle for those that have thrived in the Austin area to give back to the communities that they live in and that have provided them opportunities for success.

HC4A also operates in Los Angeles, CA. HC4A helps economically disadvantaged students advance their education so they too can live the American dream, all while celebrating our own culture and sharing it with others.

Our cross-cultural event with Shalom Austin in the spring, and our annual gala in the fall which raises money for vocational educational diverse cultures!

Come join us in showing our sup-scholarships, are open to all in the Austin community and are truly a celebration of the cultural diversity of this area.

The selfless volunteers, sponsors, donors, and volunteer visual and performing artists at our HC4A events, along with all our attendees, are helping build a strong, successful, educated community of port for the community in which we live and for our local students, all while showing our pride in being an important part of our local community.
